HOCKEY MATCH
Monitor 2 Veteran 1

One of the fastest games of hockey ever seen around here was staged on the local rink last Monday, before a large and enthusiastic crowd.

The local boys game was replete with individual rushes up the ice and heavy checking, very little combination being indulged in. Gray had the honor of scoring both goals for Monitor, getting the first one on a pass from Kemp. Doc Lader put up his usual snappy game but was penalized twice for his willingness to "mix in."
Duncan, Gilliam and McGirr all did noble work, the fans being well pleased with the result.

The eighth wonder of the world has just been discovered.
Some say he's a human being, and that he runs the News office, but the boys from Veteran do not think so. They thought he was a freak from Fairyland.
They tried every conceivable way of trying to fool the local goalkeeper and managed to get one shot past him. The visitors hurled enough pucks at Mac on Monday to make a man think it was raining rubber, but he took it all as a mere joke, and the faster they came at him the faster he appeared to be. There were times when it appeared as if he had just come out of a horse-shoe factory for some of the stops were made in a way that only a trained seal could make out, and he even stopped one with his neck.

Richardson was the outstanding star of the visiting team and played a wonderful game. Their combination and team work in general was a pleasure to watch, and only the spectacular work of the goalkeeper saved Monitor from defeat. The locals lined as follows:

Goal	McCulloch
Defense	Doug Duncan
	Lader
Centre	Gilliam
Wings	Gray, F. McGirr
Subs.	Kemp, Benoit

Local Happenings

A most enjoyable evening was spent, last Friday, when about 50 persons attended the first whist drive of the season put on under the auspices of the Girls' O. N. O. Club. Ten rounds of whist were played and the winners proved to be Mrs. Geo. Marshall and E. M.
Gilliam. Miss M. Hargrove and L. O. Gould carried off the prizes for low scores.

A representative from the Edmonton City Dairy was in town for a few days, recently, looking over the ground with an idea of building a branch creamery at Monitor, in the Spring. While nothing definite was decided upon, the prospects for the establishment of a creamery here are very bright. Motor trucks will be used to bring in the cream from the outlying districts.

J. C. Matheson spent the New Year holidays at Medicine Hat and other points south.

There was a fair attendance at the New Year's Dance, on Monday night, and all report a good time.

Miss M. Hargrove left on Monday for Altario where she will teach school.

The local School reopened on Monday last after being closed since the second week in Nov.

H. McCarron is shipping hogs next Tuesday, Jan. 10th. If you have any to sell bring them in that day.

N. Craig returned home on Wednesday after spending a few weeks at Rouleau, Sask.

One sheet of ice at the Curling Rink is now in good shape.
Rates for the games, for each player, are as follows:
Afternoon games 25c
Evening games 40c

Miss Hazel Currie, Seattle,
Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. O. Stewart.

D. P. Rahneff left on Tuesday for a visit to his old home in Bulgaria.

Monitor and Sedalia will play hockey on Saturday, Jan. 7th, on the local ice.

gling with suppressed excitement, Saturday night. Never has started a provision store on his premises. Wot luck!

Buildings are still migrating to town. Monsieur Benway has charmed his workshop off the farm.

We forgot to mention the happy pre-Christmas birthday party of Mrs. E. Morris and Miss G. Robins. All seemed happy.

Station Agent Boone is recovering, at the Coronation Hospital, after his fall which caused the tearing of several ligaments.

A delightful New Year's gathering was held on Sunday at the home of Roy and Mrs.
Baxter. A social hour was spent, followed by the Sunday School Session.

The parsonage was regaled with superabundance of gleet at the New Year's party held on Monday. Mrs. M. Liknes, of Monitor, was a welcome visitor.

A weekly prayer and testimony meeting is being held every Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Parsonage. We invite "whoever will" to come.

Many thanks are due to Misses G. Robins and J. Mitchell for their efforts in raising funds for the Christmas Tree.

In mind, body and pocket may this Year be to all the acme of perfection. Deus Vult!

You May Have Kidney Trouble And Not Know It

If your back aches and you suffer from dragging pains, it is an evidence your kidneys may not be acting just right. What you need is a course with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They contain both Mandrake and Butternut and act very beneficially upon the liver and kidneys. "I was bothered a great deal with my kidneys, but got quick relief from Dr. Hamilton's Pills. My trouble manifested itself by pain in the back and by constant headaches. I quickly recovered after using a few boxes of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They brought me health, strength and vigor." "Oh, yes, I'll be chippin' in. Of course. But I didn't just get back the farm yet. I'll have 't' say sell an' straighten things up some first. You see, I thought you'd get my letter before you left, an' you could kind o' make your deal then, an' your payment would hold the bargain bound until I could sell mine, 'y' see, Harris?" Riles was beginning to address himself mainly to the older man.

"Don't take me up wrong," said Allan. "I'm in on this along with Dad, if he's in; an' if he's out, I'm out. But I was just kind o' curious about it." "It's all right, it's all right," assured Riles, with great magnanimity. Inwardly he was cursing Gardner for having left this to him. He was suspicious of a trap in the simplest question, and feared that any minute he might find himself floundering in a mesh of contradictions.

"Where is this coal mine, and who's got it?" said Harris.

"I ain't saw it myself," admitted Riles. "They're awful rich about lettin' people see it," he continued, with a sudden flash of inspiration. "It's so valuable, 'y' know."

"Fraid somebody'll bring it home in their pocket, I suppose," said Allan.

Riles pretended to laugh heartily. "But where is it?" insisted Harris. "Is there a railroad near, or how do you get at it?"

"It's up in the mountains, an' that's all I can tell you, but it's all right, an' there's a pile o' money in it. I guess I better bring Gardner down in the morning, an' he'll explain all about it. 'Y' see, he knows the fellow 'at owns it, an' I don't, an' he'll be able to tell you. That is, if you're gone in on it. Gardner won't say much

Could Not Eat

Constipation is caused by a torpid condition of the liver. Dosing with salts, castor oil, etc., to move the bowels, cannot afford more than temporary relief.

If you are to rid yourself of this ailment and the scores of annoying symptoms and diseases which come in its wake, it is necessary to get the liver right by such treatment as is suggested in this letter:

Mrs. Alvin Richards, R. R. No. 1, Seely's Bay, Ont., writes:

"For two years I was afflicted with indigestion, and in the morning when I got up my breath was bad. I had a poor appetite, and just felt like eating certain foods. I used many different medicines as a laxative without benefit, and the doctor's medicine did not help me at all. Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and found them better than anything I had ever tried. I can highly recommend them to anyone troubled with constipation or kidney troubles."

unless he knows you're goin' in on it." "Well, he'll have to say a good deal before he knows," said Harris. "I ain't buyin' a pig in a poke. He's got 't' show me, and then if it's all right, why, it's all right."

"Oh, it's all right," said Riles, although inwardly he felt little enthusiasm over the attitude of either father or son. He was annoyed that Allan should be present. On the whole, it would be better to leave the rest of the explaining to Gardner.

"What's that of it, Dad?" said Allan, when Riles was gone.

"Maybe all right," said Harris. "Wouldn't be surprised but it is. At the same time, I ain't goin' to put a cent in it till I'm dead sure. And anyway, there's no use lettin' Riles think we're keen on it."

"That's what I think. You think Gardner's all square in it?"

"I don't know. Likely he's getting a big commission from somewhere, but that's fair enough, if he makes the deal. But he won't see any o' our money till I have the opinion of the best lawyer in town. That's all we can say till we see it."

"That seems safe," Allan agreed. "Just the same, I think there's lots of chances to use our money to advantage here than down in Manitoba, don't you?"

"Yes, I think there is. You see, this is a new country, and everything's on the jump. Think how much we could 'a' made in Manitoba in the early days if we had the money and knew where 't' put it. Well, out here they've got the benefit of our experience, an' they'll do as much here in five years as we did in twenty-five. We had 't' make the money 't' develop our country—had 't' make it right at home on our farms, an' that's slow. But here the money's rollin' in from outside."

"What d'ye say if we sell the old farm away, an' then if this mine business don't look good, we'll plunk it into farm land?"

"Might do worse," his father agreed. "We'll have a look round for a day or two, anyway."

The next morning they began a round of the real estate offices. Great quantities of everywherewhens and dealers seemed to have hardly time to give them attention. In one little box of a place they mentioned that they might be the nearest market for a couple of thousand acres.

"Think I can fix you up all right," said the proprietor, and there's one sure thing you can put your money anywhere where it's safer or 'll grow faster. Why—"

"At that moment a man in a pepper-and-salt suit went by the door.

"Scuse me a minute," said the dealer, rushing to the door and sending a shrill whistle down the street. The man in the pepper-and-salt suit turned, and the dealer beckoned him into the little office.

"You know that five-thousand-acre block you bought last week," he said in a low voice, but loud enough to be heard by the dealer's boy. "Bought it at six dollars, didn't you? Well, I can give you seven to-day, for a quick sale."

"Couldn't think of it, my dear fellow," protested the lucky buyer. "I simply couldn't think of it."

"Couldn't think of making five thousand dollars in a week? I don't look too bad to a working man like me."

"But it's nowhere near the value of the land. Why, they're selling stuff in Illinois to-day that ain't to be compared with it at a hundred and fifty dollars an acre. It's only a question of time until this is as much. You've got better land here, and better climate, and you're a thousand miles nearer the Pacific Ocean, that's going to carry the commerce of the future. Seven dollars? It's an insult to Canada to mention such a price?"

"Well, say," continued the real estate man, in a still more confidential tone, "I was allowing myself a little margin on the deal, even at seven dollars. But I had a man in here a few minutes ago that'll buy that block at eight-fifty. I'll pay you eight dollars net to put it through."

"Sorry, but he'll have to get down deeper than that if he wants it. Tell him I might consider ten dollars, but mind, I ain't making any promise." And the man in the pepper-and-salt suit continued his course down the street, just the same as if he were not making five thousand dollars a week.

"Big capitalist from New York, that fellow," explained the dealer. "Simply coinin' money up here, and always sailin' it into our land."

The incident left a deep impression on the Harrises. They did not know, of course, that the man in the pepper-and-salt suit always went by the door when likely-looking strangers were in, and that he always refused a profit of ten thousand dollars as a matter of little consequence—except for its influence on the unsuspecting party of the third part.

CHAPTER XV.

The Lure of Easy Money

In the afternoon Gardner and Riles drove into town and met the Harrises in the waiting-room of the hotel. Gardner's greeting was friendly, but not over-familiar, as became a man who had recently suffered some reflection on his character. He shook Harris and Allan by the hand, inquired after the cattle and the crops, but discreetly avoided family matters, having learned from Riles that all had not been going smoothly in their domestic affairs. Gardner knew a little more about the state of the bar, to which he escorted his guests. Having ordered a bottle and glasses on the table, he turned the key in the door.

"You can't be too careful," he explained. "You know, the walls have ears, and if it gets out that this coal mine can be picked up at the price we have on it, it will be taken before night. I understand your money is not here yet, Mr. Harris."

"No. Not started, I guess. The fact is, I haven't sold the farm."

"Well, I don't want to hurry you, but we've got to act quickly, or not at all. Of course, we don't figure on taking any chances. Our idea is to turn the property over at once, at a good profit. That's the way you feel about it too, isn't it?"

"I'm not a coal miner."

"Exactly. Neither are the men who own most of the mines of this country. There comes a time, Mr. Harris, when we realize that we don't have to get down with pick and shovel to make ourselves some money—in fact, the man with pick and shovel hasn't time to make any real money. I am glad you feel like I do about it, for I have already taken the liberty of putting the proposition up to a New York syndicate."

"You mean if we don't come through they will?"

"No, I mean that we'll come through—and they'll come after us. My idea is not to take any chances, but to sell the property, or as good as sell it, before we buy it. So I sent Government report on it to this syndicate, as I heard they were looking out for coal lands in the West, and I just took the liberty of offering it to them for a cool quarter of a million, and gave them a week to say yes or no. And here they are. I'm a little anxious for an answer, although if they don't take it others will. You see, the old fellow that owns it simply hasn't any idea what it's worth. He has lived in the hills until he looks like one of 'em, and a satchel of money in real bills will simply dazzle him. A cheque wouldn't serve the purpose; he'd be suspicious of it, and he's come down to investigate, and someone would be sure to crimp our deal."

"But what is your plan for the deal, Mr. Gardner?" asked Harris. "We can't go into the mountains with a load of bills and buy a mine like a man might buy a steer. There'll have to be papers, titles and such things, I suppose, to make it right with us and with the Government."

"Of course," Gardner agreed. "We will take the money with us, but we won't give it to him until we get the papers. We'll just let him see it—nibble it a little, if you like—and then we'll lead him into town with it, like you lead a horse with oats. The sight of so much money will keep him coming our way when nothing else would. And he'll slip him a hundred or two, and get a little receipt for it, just to prevent him changing his mind if he should be so disposed."

"And suppose I don't like the look of the mine when I see it?"

"Then you bring your money back down with you and put it into farm lands, or anything else that takes your fancy. After you look it over, if you don't want to go in on it, Mr. Harris, perhaps Riles and I can raise enough ourselves to swing the deal, but you see we thought of you from the first, and we will stay with our original plan until you have a chance to decide one way or another."

"Well, that sounds fair," said Allan, and his father nodded. "But we haven't sold the farm, and until we do I guess there isn't much money in sight."

"Bradshaw'll sell the farm quick enough if I send him word," his father assured him. "He may not get it all in money, but he'll get a good part of it, and he has ways o' raisin' the balance so long's the surety is good. I've half a mind 't' wire him 't' close 'er out."

At this moment there came a knock on the door, and a boy presented a telegram for Gardner. He opened it, read it, and emitted a whoop like a wild Indian. "They're coming through!" he shouted, "coming through!" How does half of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars look to you, Mr. Harris?"

Harris reached out eagerly for the telegram, while Allan, his arm thrown over his father's shoulder, read it in boyish excitement:

"If investigation confirms Government reports we will pay two hundred and fifty thousand. Our representative leaves at once for personal interview."

Civilization Bad For Eskimo

Traveller Predicts that Eskimo Tribes Will Soon Be Extinct

Members of the Eskimo tribes, who total upwards of 5,000 persons, will be extinct during the lifetime of people now living, according to a prophecy made in Toronto by S. Sainsbury, who spent ten years in the Arctic regions of Baffin's Land and Hudson's Bay. He declared the effect of civilization on the Eskimo was appalling, their health and stamina breaking down completely. The chief cause of their physical deterioration is the introduction of civilized foods, white flour being particularly disastrous in its effects.

Valuable Clay In Alberta

Suitable for Manufacturing Brick and Tile Drain

The story of a pronounced disability disclosing itself as a valuable asset comes from the Smoky River country along the line of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia railway. Engineers of the road had ceaseless trouble in maintaining the approach to the crossing of the river owing to the continual sliding of the clays of which the banks are composed. Now it appears after examination that these clays, of which there is an enormous quantity, are valuable for the manufacture of brick and tile drain, and may in time give birth to an industry, the traffic of which should compensate the railroad for some of the trouble it has experienced.

MANY CHILDREN SICK HOW TO TREAT THEM

The kiddies will get their feet wet, catch cold, get grouchy and give their mothers lots of trouble. With the first cough or sneeze, rub the little one's chest with Nerviline, rub it on plentifully. It can't harm. Then make a gargle with Nerviline and water, and have the child gargle for five minutes. Just at bed time, give the child ten drops of Nerviline in hot sweetened water. The result is fine, and next morning child is better. Nerviline is a great protection in the home. Large 35c bottles at all dealers.

KEEP LITTLE ONES WELL IN WINTER

Winter is a dangerous season for the little ones. The days are so changeable—one bright, the next cold and stormy, that the mother is afraid to take the children out for the fresh air and exercise they need so much. In consequence they are often cooped up in overheated, badly ventilated rooms and are soon seized with colds or grippe. What is needed to keep the little ones well is Baby's Own Tablets. They will regulate the stomach and bowels and drive out colds and by their use the baby will be able to get over the winter season in perfect safety. The Tablets are sold by medicine-dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Aeroplane Stunts Are Barred

A New Clause is Added to the Air Regulations

Acrobatic tricks, involving entering or leaving an aeroplane while in flight, are barred under a new clause which has been added to the air regulations. The clause reads as follows: "No person shall enter or attempt to enter any aircraft in flight; or leave or attempt to leave any aircraft in flight, except for the purpose of making a parachute descent; or give upon any aircraft in flight any gymnastic or other like exhibition."

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

Is greatly relieved by constitution treatment. HALL'S CATARRHAL MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation is removed, the hearing will be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRHAL MEDICINE acts through the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.

Minard's Liniment For Diphtheria

Wrap of Black Duvelyn And Hudson Seal

By Marie Belmont

A coat which can adapt itself to varied occasions is a very desirable one to possess. This versatility of use finds expression here in black duvelyn trimmed in Hudson seal.

The wrap is built on loose lines, this effect being carried out in the single button fastening and the dropped shoulder seams. The chin collar is becoming and gives additional warmth. The finishing band of fur at the hemline is attractive for a person of sufficient height, but should be avoided by one of very short stature.

This coat is attractive over afternoon frocks of black or color, and can also be used for evening wear.

Worms in children work havoc. These pests attack the tender lining of the intestines and, if left to pursue their ravages undisturbed, will ultimately perforate the wall, because these worms are of the hook variety that cling to and feed upon the interior surfaces. Miller's Worm Powders will not only exterminate these worms, of whatever variety, but will serve to repair the injury they have done.

Your attention is drawn to the advertisement of the Metal Shingle & Siding Co., Ltd., appearing in another column of this issue. Farmers and others will do well to take advantage of their exceptional offer.

Worms cause fretfulness and rob the infant of sleep, the great nourisher. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will clear the stomach and intestines and restore healthfulness.

THIN, FLAT HAIR

GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass of soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first, growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, lustrous and abundant.

Will your "Good Morning" last all day?

Easy to start from the breakfast table with zest and enthusiasm, but how easy is it to keep on? Does ambition last, or lag, as the day develops?

The afternoon "slump" is a factor to be counted upon, in business or social life.

Usually, there's a reason.

Nerves whipped by tea or coffee won't keep on running, and they won't stand constant whipping.

Many a man or woman who has wished the afternoon would be as bright as the morning has simply been wishing that the nerves wouldn't have to pay the natural penalty for being whipped with the caffeine drug.

Postum gives a breakfast cup of comfort and cheer, without any penalties afterward. There's no "letting down" from Postum—no midday drowsiness to make up for midnight wakefulness; no headaches; no nervous indigestion; no increase of blood pressure.

Think it over. There's full satisfaction in Postum—a cup of comfort for anybody (the children included), any time.

You can get Postum from your grocer or your waiter today, and probably you'll begin to have better tomorrows, as so many thousands have had, who have made the change from tea and coffee to Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while coffee is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.

Note and Comment

The Dominion Government has always been aware of the necessity for encouraging tree culture on the prairies, but it was not until 1901 that a really definite and practical scheme for assisting settlers in this work was put into operation. It was in that year that the first distribution of trees was made under the co-operative scheme of the Forestry Branch of the Interior Department.

From a small beginning the distribution of trees from the nurseries at Indian Head and Sutherland has grown until it now averages about five million seedlings and cuttings each season, half of which are planted in Saskatchewan, and the balance in Alberta and Manitoba. As a consequence of this distribution, we now find in all parts of these provinces examples of excellent farm shelter belts.

"It is an established fact," said the lecturer, "that the sun is gradually but surely losing its heat, and in the course of 70,000,000 years it will be exhausted; consequently this old world of ours will be dead and, like the moon, unable to support any form of life."

The head and shoulders of an excited member of the audience rose above those of his fellows. "Pardon me, professor!" he cried "how many years did you say it would take before this calamity overtakes us?"

"Seventy millions, sir," said the professor.

"Thank heaven!" gasped the interrogator, sinking back exhausted into his seat. "I thought you said seven million!"

The minister who says that women's freedom in dress is sanctioned by the Bible, probably took his text from Revelations.

A boss is a man who gets to work early when you are late, and is late when you are early.

France Remains Firm On Broad Plans For Submarine Building

Washington.—Efforts to limit the naval strength of the powers in submarines and auxiliary warships came to an abrupt end after they had drawn the French and British arms conference delegates into a plain spoken exchange over the possibilities of a future war between France and the British empire.

The French, acting under renewed instructions from their Government, told the conference naval committee, with an air of finality, that France must remain free to build a submarine fleet nearly three times as great as that she now possesses and to construct, in addition, cruisers, destroyers and other auxiliary craft up to a tonnage of 330,000 tons.

To the proposal the Japanese, Italian and United States delegates replied with expressions of surprise and regret, while the British charged openly that such a building programme must be regarded as a menace to British shores. Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour added that he had no doubt, if occasion arose, Great Britain would be equal to it, but only if she reserved complete freedom of action as to the construction of all types of auxiliaries which might be useful against under-water warfare.

Agreeing that further argument would be useless, the committee turned its attention to collateral subjects, including regulations for future use of submarines, proposals for limitation of the size and armament of individual auxiliary vessels and details of the agreement already sealed in principle regarding capital ships.

Improve Conditions On the Farm

Nothing More Worthy of Men of Science and Education, Clifford Sifton Says

Toronto.—Addressing a session of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Sir Clifford Sifton emphasized particularly the necessity for improving conditions of life on the farm. So important did the former minister of the Interior consider this that he declared:

"Nothing is more worthy of the attention of the men of science and education than the amelioration of the conditions of the average farmer and his family by inventions and appliances which will facilitate as far as possible the performance of the ordinary work of the farm, and which will improve the productivity of the soil.

"Without going into further details I would put as the very first requirement in the development of natural resources, recognition of the fact that the most important resource is agriculture and the improvement of conditions upon the farm to the end that the exodus from the farm may be stopped and farming operations rendered more easy and comfortable," continued Sir Clifford Sifton, amid applause.

"I am quite certain that the movement from the farm to the city is largely due to the revolt of the farmer's wife and family against the slavish labor which they have to do and this revolt in my judgment is amply justified by the conditions. When it is said that the interests of the country require the promotion of a movement to get people to go back to the farm the answer is that what is wanted is not propaganda but something that will render life upon the farm more tolerable.

"It is not for nothing that the farmer has gone into politics. The basic industry of this country is crying out for help and the help that is required is not subsidies and not spoon-feeding, but action which will place the work of the farm upon a better and more comfortable, and more remunerative basis. The successful carrying on of the farms of Canada depends on the domestic work in the farmer's kitchen and barnyard."

It pays to patronise home industry. Buy from the merchants in your own town.

A Scene of Splendor

Calcutta.—Amid scenes of splendor and the presence of enthusiastic crowds the Prince of Wales opened the Victorian Memorial, dedicated to the Queen-Empress Victoria, whose memory is held in the highest esteem throughout India. The building is in the form of a vast marble palace and is of rare architectural beauty. It required 15 years to erect it. The building comprises a museum, commemorated to India's glory. It contains portraits of the old emperors of Delhi and of famous men who labored for India during the Victorian era. The ceremony was carried out in full state.

Friendship Increasing Powers On Increase

Crown Prince of Japan is Pleased With Results of Conference

Tokio.—Crown Prince Hirohito, the regent, personally reading the speech from the throne at the opening of the Diet, expressed gratification in noting the increasing friendship of the Japanese Government with the different treaty powers, and that the Washington conference was approaching a successful conclusion.

The regent exhorted the co-operation of the Japanese people in the promotion of national prosperity and of lasting peace in view of the added responsibility of the nation with respect to other nations. The session of the Diet was brief and formal.

May Oppose Harding's Shipping Plan Washington.—President Harding's shipbuilding plan, though not fully worked out, will be ready to offer to Congress soon after the holidays. It will provide for a heavy expenditure in direct subsidies. Intense opposition to it is already developing in Congress and it is generally regarded as doubtful whether it can be forced through even under administration pressure. Agricultural interests are lining up against it.

Situation in Egypt Improving London.—Official reports received from Cairo state that the situation in Lower Egypt was approaching normal, that all officials had returned to their offices and that only the schools remained closed.

There were small disturbances in Alexandria, but Cairo, the canal zone and the hinterland were quiet, indicating, according to official circles here, that the worst of the disturbances have ended.

Use Unemployed As Night Guards

Plan Suggested for Philadelphia May Check Thefts

Philadelphia.—A plan to use 4,000 unemployed in the city as night watchmen, their wages to be paid by the contribution of 15 cents weekly by each family in the territory they are to guard, has been suggested to the Unemployment Committee by Major J. Hampton Moore. The plan, it was said, has the endorsement of police department officials.

The watchmen would not be in uniform and this fact, the Major said, would have the effect of decreasing automobile thefts, burglaries and handiwork of all sorts.

British Golfers to Tour Canada

Chicago.—James H. Taylor, five times open golf champion of Great Britain, and Alex. Herd, who held the British title in 1907, will make a tour of Canada and the United States next summer, it was announced here. The veterans will compete in the United States open golf championship at the Skokie Club, Chicago.

The Reparation Question

Hamburg.—The efforts of Germany during 1921 to fulfil her peace obligations have failed, and it is idle to think that any political or economic efforts will now succeed unless these conditions are modified, declared the annual report of the Hamburg chamber of commerce. "Those who still believe the London ultimatum can be carried out," says the report, "either are without judgment or do not desire fulfillment but the destruction of Germany, which in time would react on France, England and America."

British Government Has Gone The Limit On Irish Question

Discuss Farm Problems

Prof. Shacken Also Pays Tribute to Early Investigators of the Country

Winnipeg.—Agricultural experts from many parts of the Dominion and the United States gathered here for the second annual convention of the Western Canadian Society of Agronomy.

Addressing the delegates, Prof. John Bracken, president of the Manitoba Agricultural College, paid a tribute to the men who had led the way in the matter of research and experiment. When the history of agriculture in Western Canada was written, he said, the early investigators in agronomy would be complimented on the standpoint of soil management and crop production. On the other hand, they might be criticized for not having conserved the soil in the way that might be expected, and it was the fact that they had not done so that constituted the problem before agronomists today. Methods had to be devised for solving that problem before it was too late.

Prof. Manley Champlin, of the University of Saskatchewan, read a lengthy paper on "Field Tests with Fallow Substitutes," in which he said the University of Saskatchewan in 1922 would undertake a project to determine the effect of various fallow substitutes in the production of wheat outlined about as follows:

Oats, barley and wheat in double rows, 36 inches apart, and in triple rows, 20 inches apart; corn, potatoes and sunflowers in single rows, 42 inches apart, and sudan grass in double rows, 45 inches apart.

M. J. Timline, Scott, Sask., gave a paper on "Practical Crop Rotations for the Prairie Farmer." Because of the one-crop system farmers were, as a class, financially embarrassed. Adoption of rotations on the farms would distribute labor more evenly throughout the summer and provide winter employment, he said.

Rush For Gold Claims

Activity Greatest Since the Opening Up of Northern Manitoba as Mineral Belt

The Pas, Man.—Snow staking of mining claims in the new Elbow Lake gold camp, north of here, is the most active since the opening up of Northern Manitoba as a mineral belt. The action of the Hollinger Mine of Porcupine in taking an option on the Murray Brothers' claims has caused every prospector in the district to head for the new camps.

Sales of claims are numerous, and the price has advanced from $500 to $1,000. One small group of claims, seven miles from the Hollinger properties has been sold by a local man for $5,000 cash, and a banker here was handed $2,700 for one claim and the sale of another for $2,000 quite a distance from the Murray claims. Most of this money comes from Montreal and Toronto interests.

Wear of Winter, Suspect Surrenders

Winnipeg.—Wear of the vigorous northern climate and expressing a deep longing to be back under southern skies, William B. Shelley, wanted for theft at Oakland, Cal., walked into the police station here and gave himself up. He was remanded for one week in order that the Oakland police may be communicated with.

Campaign to Check Reckless Driving

Hamilton, Ont.—That next spring the department of public works would start a campaign to check reckless driving and prevent irresponsible drivers from operating cars throughout the province, was the announcement of Hon. F. C. Biggs, who addressed the Kiwanis Club here.

Plan Help For Russia

Rome.—The Italian Red Cross is to establish eighteen food and medical depots in the famine area of Southern Russia, under an agreement signed here by the president of the organization, and M. Vorovsky, Soviet representative. The government has contributed 8,000,000 lire for the work.

London.—A statement from Prime Minister Lloyd George was issued here to the effect that the Government has gone the almost limit in the Irish agreement and that it was impossible to re-open the discussions.

The delay in ratification in Ireland, the statement said, was holding the statement said, was holding up the working of the cabinet committee appointed to arrange the evacuation of the British forces in Ireland, settle the terms of the amnesty and transfer executive responsibility to the Irish provisional government.

Following is the text of Lloyd George's statement:

"No British statesmen could go further than we have gone; no British statesmen could consider any proposal involving Ireland being out of the empire.

"The treaty places Ireland on an equality with the other states of the empire—and gives Ireland the same claim to membership in the League of Nations and every right that Canada has in law, fact and constitutional practice; and not merely rejection, but alteration even of the treaty would render it null and void. This would indeed be deplorable in the interests of both countries.

"The British Government has gone their utmost limit in the treaty and to re-open the discussion which was closed only after the most exhaustive consideration of every point, would be a fruitless proceeding and is impossible.

France Wants Strong Fleet

Submarine is Defended as Essential Weapon of Defence and for Military Purposes Only

Paris.—France's determination to limit conference, were vigorously to the limitation efforts of the Washington conference, were vigorously voiced in the Senate during a discussion of the marine section of the government's budget.

Senator de Kerguelen defended the submarine as an essential weapon of defense, but wished it to be confined to military uses instead of being applied to torpedoing commerce. "At the Washington conference," he said, "we were surprised to see the French delegation demand 320,000 tons of capital ships when France does not intend to carry war into foreign waters. France desires no imperialism, but if we found Admiral de Bon's proposal strange, there are, nevertheless, limitations which we cannot accept."

Cannibalism In Russia

Russians Eat Dead Bodies in Famine Stricken Areas

Riga.—The first official report of cannibalism in the famine districts of Russia has been made to the all-Russian Soviet congress by Delegate Ovsienko, of Samara, according to a dispatch to the official Rosta News Agency, dated Moscow.

"At Ramkoveksy the parish people are eating the bodies of their dead," Ovsienko told the congress.

"It is dangerous to bury the famine victims in the presence of the people and guards must be kept over them until they are in a state that makes eating impossible."

The speaker said that children are being taken to the Steppes and left there to die; that mothers, maddened by their experiences, cut the throats of their babies.

At the beginning of January, continued Ovsienko, the Soviets, with all their outside aid, will be able to feed only half the starving children and only one-twentieth of the adults. The rest of the people would have to die while waiting help.

Veteran Arrested in Ottawa

Ottawa.—Wm. H. Coulter, the veteran who walked all the way from Vancouver to Ottawa to lay some grievances as to his treatment while overseas before the Government, appeared in police court charged with disorderly conduct on the public streets. Magistrate Askwith permitted him to depart on suspended sentence.

The CANADIAN POWER FARMER is Western Canada's biggest farm monthly. It is now in its twentieth year which means that it is thoroughly established throughout the West. It deals with the mechanical side of the farm. Every issue is full of helpful hints and experiences on the operation of all kinds of farm machinery from a washing-machine to a tractor. Its editor has just completed a trip of several months over Western Canada in a motor car for the purpose of studying the mechanical needs of the farmers. He visited the farmers, lived with them and worked with them. The results of his trip will appear during the next twelve months.

This offer may be withdrawn at any time. Without doubt your intention is to renew for this weekly, then why not take advantage now. NEW MAP

Attention is now being directed towards the country's natural resources, as never before, since it is generally recognized that only by a more widespread utilization of Canada's undeveloped lands, mines, forests, water powers and fisheries, can present day economic problems be solved.

A map has been published showing the leading natural resources of each province, in the way of Fisheries, Farming, Mining, Timber, Fur Farming, Fruit-growing, Ranching, etc.

In addition to information on natural resources, the map shows all railways and trade routes. An interesting and valuable feature is a series of comparative diagrams illustrating the production and exports of the various provinces. A copy of the map may be obtained free of charge upon application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.
